ISU Employee Incentives

ISU, as well as a number of local businesses and franchises in the Terre Haute area, offer discounts and special deals ("perks") to Indiana State University Staff and Faculty. The intent of these offers is to encourage goodwill within the community between ISU and local businesses; ISU Staff and Faculty will have incentive to patronize local businesses, and local businesses will benefit from increased business with ISU employees. These perks are special offers and not a part of the benefits packages provided by Indiana State University.

DISCLAIMER: By listing businesses and their offers below, Indiana State University is not endorsing these businesses or the goods/services offered. We have been in contact with these businesses, or they have contacted us, regarding partnering in our program. The listings below are provided by the respective businesses; Indiana State University is not responsible for whether the information is accurate or current. Be a wise consumer and research services and discounts appropriately before taking advantage of an offer.

ISU Employee Incentives

Early Childhood Education Center
ISU’s Early Childhood Education Center (ECEC) is designed as a comprehensive childcare/child development center to serve children, 6 weeks to 5 years of age, of ISU students, faculty, staff members, and community families. An additional feature is to provide an exemplary child care program for academic research and training. This program is designed for children whose parents/guardians have work or school obligations. Faculty and staff are charged based on their income. They can receive assistance through CCDF or another outside agency. If there is a waiting list, faculty and staff receive priority on the list. For more information visit the ECEC’s webpage: http://www.indstate.edu/ecec/ or call: 812-237-2547

Fee Waiver for ISU College Classes
Fee waivers are offered on a limited basis to faculty and staff, spouses, and dependent children. Staff may take up to 18 hours of course work at ISU each academic year at a reduced rate. Spouse may take up to 15 semester hours and have 80% of qualified tuition waived. Dependent children of qualified employees of ISU who are full-time Undergraduate students will receive a waiver of 80 percent of qualified tuition per semester for a maximum ten (10) semesters. For eligibility requirements and more information regarding the fee waiver benefit, contact Employee Benefits at 812-237-4151 or go to: http://www.indstate.edu/humres/staff-benefits/FACULTY%20STAFF%20FEE%20WAIVER.htm

University Closure During Winter Recess

The University calendar includes a Winter Recess period during which time most University offices will be closed. Each vice president will determine which operations and offices must remain open. The winter recess period begins the weekday before the Federal recognized Christmas holiday and includes the four traditional workdays (Winter recess) that occur after. For continuous shift operations (Public Safety and Power Plant), scheduled shifts that occur on non-traditional week days (weekends) may be included as winter recess days in equalizing time off. In addition, the University recognizes the New Years Day holiday after winter recess.
