There being a quorum present, Mr. Carpenter called the meeting to order at 2:05 p.m.

Reports:

Report of the President of the Board (Mr. Carpenter)

(Mr. Carpenter made the following report)

As you know, this weekend is Homecoming and will be an extremely busy time. Homecoming always brings many alumni back to campus. We appreciate the efforts of those individuals who work to keep the campus looking so nice and to make Homecoming a success.

I attended the Athletic Hall of Fame Induction Program last evening. Those inducted represent the University well and it was a very enjoyable evening.

The trike race will be held this afternoon and later this evening we will honor 4 alumni with the Distinguished Alumni Award. Tomorrow is the parade, and then on to tent city at the stadium and the football game in the afternoon. It will be a great weekend with a lot of excitement.

As we discussed at our last meeting, we are very pleased with the influx of new students and hope they are adjusting well. We hope to see many of these students at the stadium tomorrow.

The dedication of the Scott College of Business was held last month. It was a very nice event. We are anticipating that facility will open in 2012.

Another great step for the University is the progress being made on the new building that will house the Foundation Offices and the Bookstore. We anticipate that the building will be open soon. It is a good step in the right direction.

Trustee Pillow will take the point on moving forward with the process of the evaluation of President Bradley. We have done some initial work and anticipate the process taking place early in 2011. We will ask for input from the university community, community members, and stakeholders from across the State of Indiana. The review will be strictly for the use of the Trustees.

Report of the University Faculty Senate Chairperson (Dr. Lamb) (Dr. Jolynn Kuhlman presented the following report prepared by Dr. Lamb)

The Faculty Senate has not met since the last Trustee meeting. However, the Executive Committee has met a number of times and continues to hammer out the performance evaluation process as well as the accompanying process for merit pay. The Executive Committee Officers have been working in a cooperative manner with the Provost, with oversight from the President. The Provost has been receiving input from the Academic Deans and the Executive Committee Officers have been taking direction from the entire Executive Committee. The document that came out of the Faculty and Economic Benefits Committee has largely survived as have the President's concepts. I am sure that you will be reviewing this document in one of the next sessions. The document did pass through the Executive Committee this last Tuesday, October 5 and it will go before the Faculty Senate this October.

The Faculty Economics Benefit Committee and the Executive Committee have also been reviewing the President's plan for distributing salary and equity funds this academic year. We are pleased that much of our input seems to have been taken. The President and Provost have shown much willingness to work with the governance process.

It is our hope that the review of the President's plan accomplished by FEBC concerning this year's distribution of salary and equity monies will be forwarded immediately to the Executive Committee. We will forward it to the Faculty Senate for its recommendation.

In summary, this has been a very positive month for the interaction of the Administration and Faculty Governance. We applaud the efforts of the President and the Provost.

Report of the Staff Council Chairperson (Ms. Torrence) (Ms. Torrence submitted the following report)

I would like to thank Dana Hancock, employee relations, Sheila Johnson, Affirmative Action, and Mary Ferguson, Diversity Officer, for the training session for the newly revised Grievance Appeals Committee. The committee consists of 30 exempt and non-exempt staff members and most were new appointments so this training was a vital piece to complete this committee.

Last week over 250 employees and retirees with combined service of over 4,000 years were recognized for their service and dedication. It was an honor to be a part of the annual recognition ceremony recognizing so many wonderful employees. I would also like to congratulate fellow medallion recipients Rex Kendall and Tony Campbell, for their outstanding dedication to ISU and the community.

The Public Relations Committee has been busy scheduling upcoming holiday events for staff and their families. I would like to thank Pamela Malone, a new council Representative, for her efforts in leading this committee.

The Council once again had t-shirts available for purchase so that everyone may participate in blue Fridays. The Scholarship Committee used this as a fundraising effort and while the t-shirt sales are still in progress, they have raised an estimate of $400 for the Staff Scholarship fund.

The council will once again be walking in the parade on Saturday and I look forward to seeing everyone at Tent City.

Report of the Student Government Association President (Mr. Flowers) (Mr. Flowers submitted the following report)

With homecoming in full swing, I am excited for another opportunity to join you here today. Sycamore spirit is everywhere and I can't help but feel proud to be a part of all the wonderful things happening at the University right now. From Sycamore Sync to the Torchlight Parade ISU has been a whirlwind of student activity. We also want to take a moment to congratulate Spotlight Entertainment, a new ISU student organization that was responsible for organizing and running last night's homecoming concert. They put on a wonderful event, and for a new organization to orchestrate something on that scale is really spectacular.

Since we met last, SGA has been hard at work on the new SGA Constitution. The constitution is a critical document to the functioning of SGA and works as a guide for how we serve students. We realized, at the beginning of our administration that this document was in many ways out of date and not as effective as it could be. Thanks to our advisors, Adam Novotney, Associate Vice President Nolan Davis and Vice President Tillery's guidance, we spent several months sorting through ways to rework the constitution. As a result, we now have a governing document that enhances clarity of procedures, improves the democratic spirit of the SGA, and more accurately reflects the best practices of other student governments of major universities.

As you are here for homecoming, don't hesitate to speak to students when you get the opportunity. The excitement is truly contagious and speaking with students is a reminder of the importance of your role at ISU. Also, feel free to come by the SGA tent tomorrow as we would be happy to see you.

Report of the President of the University (Dr. Bradley) (Dr. Bradley submitted the following report)

Two important task forces will soon begin work. The first task force will be working with an external group to conduct an assessment of our Greek system and develop recommendations on ways it can be strengthened. Dr. Jay Gatrell, Dean of the College of Graduate and Professional Studies, will be leading this effort, and I would like to thank Trustee Pease for agreeing to serve on the task force as well. The external review team from the Fraternity and Sorority Coalition Assessment Project will be on campus October 20 and 21 to interview a variety of individuals and groups.

The second task force will be evaluating our student media including the Statesman, WISU and Sycamore Video to determine how we might improve opportunities for students and strengthen our connection to related academic programs. This task force will be led by Dr. John Murray, the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

I look forward to receiving recommendations from both of these groups.

A significant element to improving our students' success is our employees. Last week, Indiana State honored 271 faculty and staff members who have a combined 4,281 years of service to Indiana State University during the annual Employee Recognition Program.

A highlight of this event is the awarding of the University Medallion, the highest award given to ISU staff members. This year, we honored three hardworking members of our staff, Tony Campbell, Rex Kendall and Roxanne Torrence. Congratulations to these three hard-working members of our staff.

As I indicated earlier, Homecoming is here and it has been a week of great events with much more to come. Last night, we inducted five former student-athletes into the ISU Athletic Hall of Fame. The students have already had a busy week with the Tug-O-War, Sycamore Sync, the Hanging of the Blue, the Torchlight Parade, pep rally and last night's concert. This afternoon, our annual Sycamore Tricycle Derby will include a special alumni trike race and tonight we will honor R. Brent Deeler, David Darling, Gerry Dick and Connia Nelson with the Distinguished Alumni Award. There is also a unity homecoming student dance this evening.

Tomorrow looks like it will be the perfect day for a parade and a picnic followed by another great football game. Saturday night will feature an all-Greek reunion event and Sunday will offer a Praise Service featuring the Ebony Majestic Choir. I would like to acknowledge the many students, staff, faculty and alumni who put in many countless hours of work to create what I consider one of the best homecoming celebrations in the country.

Proposed Amendment to Campus Tobacco Policy to Provide Penalties for Violation

President Bradley recommended that this item be tabled until the December meeting. Signage has been ordered to provide appropriate notice. Further, President Bradley will be working with Vice President McKee and her staff to step up enforcement of the policy. Much of the input received from the campus community has been in favor of the proposed amendment. The amended proposal will provide that persons who violate the Campus Tobacco Policy will be subject to a $50 fine for each occurrence.

On a motion by Mr. Pease and seconded by Mr. Minas, the recommendation to remove this item was approved unanimously.

Item (IV)(a)(iv):

Approval of the Student Government Association Constitution

The Indiana State University Student Government Association proposes a new constitution. The new governing document has the support of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students, was approved by a two-thirds majority vote of the SGA Senate, and a 93% majority in a campus-wide student referendum. The new governing document enhances clarity of procedures, improves the democratic spirit of the SGA, and more accurately reflects the best practices of other student governments of major universities.

For purposes of clarification, passage of the SGA constitution in no way erodes the authority of the ISU Board of Trustees, which remains the final arbiter and decision-maker regarding the management of institutional affairs.

Recommendation: Approval of the Student Government Association Constitution, effective immediately.

On a motion by Mr. Huckleby, seconded by Mr. Alley, the recommendation was approved.

The request pertains to removing a person from office, amending this Constitution, amending the Standing Rules of the Senate, expelling or otherwise holding accountable Senators, and appointing SGA officials.

The request pertains to a non-binding declaration of Senate opinion or will that does not appropriate funds and does not require action by any officer outside the Legislative Branch.

The request pertains to issues that only affect the internal procedures of the Legislative Branch.

Upon approval by the Senate, all proposed resolutions shall be considered resolutions of the Senate.

Any request for a decision submitted to the Senate or any of its committees not described as a proposed resolution herein shall be considered a bill. Any proposed change to the SGA Code shall be considered a bill. Upon approval by Senate and signing by the President, the bill shall become statute of the SGA.

Section 8. Veto Procedures

Any bill that the Senate passes shall be presented to the President within five (5) weekdays of classes or exams. If the President signs the bill, it shall become a statute of the SGA. If the President takes no action for more than five (5) weekdays of classes or exams, then the bill shall become a statute of the SGA. If the President vetoes the bill partially or entirely, the bill along with any objections shall be resubmitted to the Senate for reconsideration. After reconsideration, if two-thirds (2/3) of the total number of filled Senate seats approve the original bill language, the bill shall then become a statute of the SGA. Senate reconsideration of a vetoed bill must conclude before the end of the vetoing President's term of office, otherwise said bill shall be considered null and void.
