

Welcome to HigherEdCampIN

Education Camp (Edcamp) is nationally celebrated as an *un*conference where traditional presentations are absent and participant voices are featured. Implementing a participant-centered approach requires that the topics of the conversations are determined by YOU – the conference attendees. We look forward to your experience as we converse and grow together.

#HigherEdCampIN Guiding Principles

1. #HigherEdCampIN is ... Participant Driven
2. #HigherEdCampIN is ... Framed by Optimism
3. #HigherEdCampIN is ... Conversation Based
4. #HigherEdCampIN is ... Collaborative Creation
5. #HigherEdCampIN is ... Organic Learning

#HigherEdCampIN Session I – 9:00-9:30 a.m.

Group Work
Racial Inclusion Within Curriculum and Instruction
Supporting First Gen Students and Their Challenges
Is It An Achievement Gap or an Opportunities Gap?
Advising. Having Difficult Conversations With Students

#HigherEdCampIN Session II – 9:40-10:10 a.m.

Policy Barriers: How Do Systems Create Barriers for Student Success
Probation Students: How to Motivate Them While Stressing Importance
Failure: What Does It Look Like and How Can Students Learn From It
Mental Health in Higher Education: Faculty, Staff, Students
Communicating With Students and Nudging Behavior

Extended Break to add session IV topic ideas – Display Board outside Dede I

#HigherEdCampIN Session III – 10:30-11:00 a.m.

Developing Persistence and Fortitude
Student Activism and Civil Discourse
Supporting First Gen Students and Their Challenges
Supporting Academically Underprepared Students
Probation Students: How to Motivate Them While Stressing Importance

Session IV topics posted on Display Board outside Dede I

#HigherEdCampIN Session IV – 11:15-11:45 a.m.

To Be Determined based on participant input on notes posted to the Display Board by 10:30 a.m.
